GERMAN NATIONAL ASSEMBLY.
This is the first actual photograph to arrive in this country showing the first National Assembly of Germany in session at Weimar. The photo gives a general view of the assembly, showing the men and women delegates representing various States of the German Empire. Curiously enough, hats are not doffed by the men.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Late News That Will Interest Members Here and Elsewhere.

Iowa has thirty-two councils with a membership of 8,000.

Another fine class has been received into the council at Baker, Ore.

The Knights of Salem, Ore., were prominent in the Memorial day exercises in that city.

Supreme Secretary McGinley witnessed the initiation of a class of forty-four at Mt. Angel.

Resolutions asking for the freedom of Ireland were passed by the Missouri State convention.

Butte, Mont., now boasts the second largest Fourth degree class ever received into the order.

Ground was broken Monday for the erection of a new home on Arsenal street, Watertown, N. Y.

Evansville Council is busy conferring the degrees on the 500 members added during its recent campaign.

The million membership campaign is making splendid progress everywhere and seems assured of success.

The Missouri State convention, held at Poplar Bluff, was opened with a field mass, celebrated by Bishop Hennessy.

With the last initiation of a class of 124 New Orleans Council has added over 400 members in the big drive now in progress.

Pittsford Council, of Lincoln, Neb., has just initiated a campaign class. Rev. Father Moran is Grand Knight of this council.

A degree team from Utica did its first work at Oswego, N. Y., when it exemplified the third degree for a class of 194 candidates.

Last Sunday, preceding the State convention, fifty candidates received the degrees at Portland, Ore. Supreme Secretary McGinley was present and delivered an address.

Jeffersonville will confer the degrees tomorrow on a class of at least 100. The order in that city is receiving effective support from the Rev. Michael Halpin, pastor of St. Augustine's church.

LONG ROAD TRIP.

The Louisville ball club, after finishing the present series at Indianapolis, will make an entire swing of the circuit, not returning home until June 24, and many of the fans would feel more sanguine of the result of that tour if the hole at short-stop was filled before the club goes much farther.

The pitching staff is strong, with Davis, Long, Anderson and Tincup; the catching staff is as good as any in the Association, and we have the best outfield in the Association. Outside of Hendricks and Betzel the club has not been hitting up to its proper strength, but it is plain to the observer that this department will remedy itself. Acosta, Benchler, Kirke and McCarthy being sure to improve over their present averages.

Three-fifths of the games lost can be charged to the weakness at short-stop, and with even an ordinary infielder at that position the club would have been in first or second position. Here's hoping "Cap" Neal will dig us up one before many moons.

SACRED HEART RETREAT.

Sunday afternoon there was a large gathering of people from all parts of the city at the Sacred Heart Retreat to witness the solemn May procession through the beautiful monastery grounds on the Newburg road, concluding with benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. This has been a busy week for the Passionists, fathers, Rev. Xavier Sutton conducting the solemn obsequies.

RECENT DEATHS.

Funeral services for Mrs. Martha Quinlan, aged seventy-three, were held Sunday afternoon at St. Cecilia's church. She was the widow of Edward Quinlan and resided at 2511 West Main street. One son, Edward Quinlan, and three daughters survive her.

St. Ann's parish is mourning the death of another of its esteemed members, Ernest Nelson, beloved husband of Mary Bertha Nelson. He was in his twenty-fifth year, and the family residence was at Seventh and Oakland Court. The funeral took place Tuesday morning, Rev. Father Hill celebrating the requiem mass.

Mrs. Mary B. Davis, fifty-five years old, wife of H. J. Davis, 2002 Burnett avenue, died Wednesday night in Sts. May and Elizabeth Hospital. She is survived by four daughters, Misses Mabel, Ethel, Loreta, Rosella Davis, and two sons, Leo and Arthur Davis. Funeral services will be held in St. George's church at 9 o'clock this Saturday morning.

Death has called another of the older members of St. Patrick's church, Mrs. Catherine McGoff, widow of the late Patrick McGoff and mother of Mrs. W. P. Clair. For many years she had resided in the West End, her home being at 506 North Nineteenth street, and was highly respected by her many acquaintances. The funeral was held from St. Patrick's church.

Tuesday morning the funeral of Louis Seibert, nineteen years old, was held from St. Anthony's church, 1627 South Seventeenth street. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Seibert, 2126 Cedar street, and leaves two sisters, Misses Leona and Gertrude Seibert, and two brothers, Henry, Jr., and John Seibert. He was a young man of much promise and a wide circle of relatives and acquaintances mourn his death.

Mrs. Anna Block, twenty-seven years old, succumbed Monday afternoon to pneumonia at her home, 1427 South Seventeenth street. She had been ill only ten days, but died fortified by the rites of her church. Surviving her are her husband, Rudolph Block, her parents and several brothers and sisters. The funeral took place Wednesday morning with requiem high mass at St. Peter's church.

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Fox, an aged and respected resident of the West End, who died of pneumonia at her residence, 2233 Dunham street, were held yesterday morning at St. Anthony's church, where for many years she had been a devout communicant. She is survived by four sons, Col. John R. Fox, Fred, Victor and Andrew Fox; three daughters, Mrs. Andy Brotzge, Mrs. Frank Erwin and Mrs. Douglas Greenwell; twenty-eight grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Many friends and relatives were deeply grieved when they learned of the death on Saturday morning of Mrs. Louise M. Dreesen, beloved wife of Louis Dreesen, at her home, 1303 Bardstown road. Mrs. Dreesen was fifty-five years old and was a woman of many virtues and happy disposition. Besides her husband she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Frances Barfield and Miss Sophia Pulsford. The funeral took place Monday afternoon from St. Bridget's church, Rev. Father Jansen conducting the solemn obsequies.

HIBERNIANS.

What They Have Been Doing the Past Week—General News Notes.

Pat Burke has been elected chief of the ball team rooters club.

The Hibernian Social Club made a neat little sum on the picture show entertainment.

County Vice President Matt O'Brien announces the arrival of a little Hibernian at his home.

Dan McCarthy delivered an instructive talk on the Irish question of today at Division 4's meeting.

The sessions of the national convention will be held in the Civic Auditorium, and will begin July 15.

It is expected the coming convocation of the Gaels will prove the most significant in the history of Hibernianism in America.

The giving of weekly prizes for individual honors to the members of the ball club has spurred the boys on to victory.

Division 1 met Monday evening and Chairman Pat Keegan was again glad to report that there was no one on the sick list.

The Seattle Hibernian baseball team was the first to score a victory over the Ballard team, who are looked upon as some players.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of South Omaha were entertained last week at the home of Mrs. D. J. Farrell, where they held a pleasant meeting.

Division 5 of Seattle had an open meeting and "roll call" last week. Besides being present each member was expected to bring a prospective candidate along.

The Ladies' Auxiliary initiation at South Omaha last week added strength to the division. After the ceremonies the members enjoyed a dainty luncheon.

Miss Ada K. Gannon, National Chairman of Irish History of the Ladies' Auxiliary, has been delivering a course of lectures in the K. of C. hall in Indianapolis.

The order here locally should send County President John H. Hennessy to the national convention at San Francisco in recognition of long and honorable service.

San Francisco Hibernians are making preparations to entertain 2,000 delegates who will assemble in July for the national convention of the A. O. H. and its Ladies' Auxiliary.

Rev. J. E. O'Brien, of Everett, State President, and Mrs. M. Doherty, State President of the Ladies' Auxiliary, were the guests of Division 1 of Seattle at its last meeting. Delegations were present from Tacoma and Everett.

TWIN CITY LEAGUE.

The Hibernian ball team went to the front in the Twin City League last Sunday by defeating the California club by a score of 12 to 3, and Manager Murphy and his boys have been chesty all this week.

"Bob" Delehanty's Mackin Council club staged a comeback by taking the Knights of Columbus into camp by a score of 9 to 2, and the X. Alumni surprised the dopsters by beating the strong Shawnee club in a 8 to 2 contest. Manager Ben Bosmeyer, of the K. of C. team, is already declaring that his boys will knock off the leaders, and a sure-enough crowd of rooters will be around the K. of C. Hibernian game tomorrow.

Mackin will meet the Shawnee and the X. Alumni will play the California club. The standing to date:
